

Ecce Arts was founded in 2010, by a small group of composers and musicians who were inspired by the belief that modern music is a societal need and committed to increasing performance opportunities. Since its' inception, Ecce has partnered with other organizations to collaborate on bringing their sound to the forefront of the musical scene, including the 'Boston Athenaeum', 'Le Laboratoire', 'Virginia Center for the Creative Arts', and the 'Rose Kennedy Greenway'.